9 September 1986

1. In your letter of 19 August 1986, you inquired as to whether of my staff, would be available to participate in your forthcoming Security Educators' Seminar. While I fully appreciate the importance of the Seminar and your thoughtful comments regarding Jim's past contributions to it, I regret to inform you that current job commitments will not permit his participation this year. 2. My Chief of Security, advises me that there are a number of excellent speakers currently in our Security Office who can ably address your group on a variety of security topics. Indicated that he would be happy to identify an alternate speaker should you desire one. representative on the Security Awareness and Education Subcommittee, STAT STAT 3. I want to assure you that NSA and I remain committed to a top quality, Community-wide security awareness program.
